S/Y STORMVOGEL - MR & MRS WIEDEKAMM

- 1 We act for Mr & Mrs Wiedekamm, the owners of the sailing yacht Stormvogel.
- 2 As you are aware, our clients contracted Norsand Limited to undertake work on the swing keel of the Stormvogel. Norsand has been fully paid by our clients for this work.

Document request

- 3 We understand that our clients made a request for a copy of its file which was provided via Vero insurance. However, Vero insurance advised by email on 5 December 2014 that they were not aware of any emails or photographs concerning the work done.
- 4 We are instructed that Norsand emails and photographs concerning this job do exist. We would be grateful if you could search your records, locate and provide such photographs and emails to us, including but not limited to any internal Norsand emails and any emails between Norsand and third parties.

Agreement to extend jurisdiction

- 5 As you know, our clients consider that the work done on their vessel was substandard and has caused them loss. They intend to pursue a claim for breach of contract and negligence against Norsand Limited.
- 6 The most economic forum for such claim is the Disputes Tribunal. Accordingly, we enclose a copy of a form that allows the Disputes Tribunal to consider claims of up to $20,000. We would ask that you would sign it and return it to us at your earliest convenience.
- 7 If Norsand were to choose not to sign the form, then our clients would be left with little choice but to pursue a claim in the District Court where they would be able to include in the proceeding a claim for substantial legal costs. It would therefore seem to be in everyone's interest for the jurisdiction of the Disputes Tribunal to be extended.

8 We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully
